EDITORS COMMENTS

Well, here it is. This issue is the first that we consider to be our regular issue. The first two were brief trial issues, and the third was devoted, too much, to one ancestor. That is not to say that we will not be making format changes in the future. Several of you have made suggestions about the Old Letters, Bible Records and Family Organization. You will see in this issue that we have adopted at least part of your suggestions. We solicit suggestions for improvement from all of you, and although we will not promise to adopt all of them, we will assure you that they will all get very serious consideration.

We regret that the printing on the early issues was sometimes difficult to read. Those first issues were reproduced by a fast copy machine. This issue, and those to follow, are done by regular offset printing press.

Please pay close attention to the data bank printout that is explained on page 3 and begins on page 4. You will see that format frequently. We hope that someday we will have every Alford who lived in the United States listed in this file. (We have about 30 more years to finish it)

One of the most useful tools to ever exist for Alford genealogical research will be the final product from our Alford Inventory, 1850. If it is to succeed it must have your help. Those who do will be given credit in the final product, and your future descendants can look back with pride and thanks that their ancestor made a contribution.

Some of you have asked about the official Alford crest and coat of arms. Others have sent reproductions and comments about them. In one of the future issues we will attempt to do a feature on the subject. In the meantime send us all you have on the subject.

The more we send out letters for which we get no response, the more determined we are to respond to each of our contacts, and if possible in a timely manner. We are not sure what is meant by "timely manner" but when the National Archives takes four months to deliver a microfilm, and when Accelerated Indexing Services takes six months to deliver a few pages of computer printout, we figure anything under three months ought to suffice. If you write or call us asking for something specific, we make every effort to get it out the same day if at all possible. If your correspondence is routine, you may not get an answer for up to three months. We are corresponding, on what we like to think is a one to one, personal basis, with several hundred people. We are working two other surnames in addition to Alford. They are Newkirk and Chapman and both have an exchange and a newsletter. We normally devote the month before publication to putting the newsletter together, studying your file, and answering your letters so the reply can come along with the newsletter. We are running about a week behind this quarter. If you have asked us for something specific, and have not received a timely response just drop us card as a reminder.

We sure thank all of you who have sent so much Alford information, and those who have responded to our requests for help of one form or another. Some of you aren't helping as much as we would like. Bur ultimate effort will be only as good as your cooperation. We depend on you to feed us information and to keep us straight by commenting on the material we send to you. Especially if you see errors or omissions. When we question you, asking for comments or help, our question is not rhetorical, we really mean it.

If you are receiving any other Family Newsletters we would like to borrow a recent copy. We want to study them to see if anyone else is doing something we should consider. We will return them immediately.

Make a temporary change on your address for Mary Louise Reynolds who is now receiving her mail at the home of her parents: 404 Runyon Drive, High Point, NC 27260. Congratulations go ought to Mary Louise who just finished college and now has her Law degree.

We regret that we have been printing the first name of Mrs. Wilburn Headrick incorrectly. We have called her Thelma and it should have been Felma.

More boo boo's are corrected in the Alford Exchange.

THANKS TO ALL OF YOU, and let us hear from you.

ALFORD DATA BANK

In each issue we will publish one or more pages from our Alford data bank. Since we are continually adding to, and making changes in, the data bank, it will never be complete. We will publish the file in it's composition as of the time we are preparing for publication.

In the listing that begins on the facing page, we have loaded most of the pedigree sheets and family group sheets that you have sent us. We have loaded some of the additional data you sent but have loaded few of the larger family lines in total. We have not loaded, into this file, the wealth of information furnished by Mrs. Bowman who published THE ALFORD FAMILY BULLETIM.

The information just is not 100% accurate. Although we have tried to keep our portion error free, we are bound to make mistakes with this much data which is very difficult to proof-read. We know that some of your source data was questionable and where it was obvious we have tried to show it with a "?". If you desire more information on any of the entries, or you would like to know our source, just drop us a line or give us a call.

This current listing is our "A-file" and we need to explain the columns. Keep this handy for future issues for we will not repeat this explanation in subsequent issues.

ALFORD: This is the first and middle name and/or initials of the principal person whose last name is always ALFORD. The list is sequenced first by this column going alphabetical by the first five characters or spaces. Middle names or initials have no real bearing on the sequence. Nicknames and alternative spellings are shown in []. If titles such as REV or DR were furnished, and if space permitted they were included.

BORN YMD, MARD YMD & DIED YMD: These date columns are essentially the same showing dates of birth, marriage and death. All are expressed by year then month and then day. In a few instances a Born date may be a date of baptism, but there is no way to distinguish these. If you provided a circa or about date then it is shown with a CA. If a date was expressed as "before" it is shown with a "<" following the date and if it was "after" a date it is followed by a ">". Dates of birth are essential to our processing so when one was not provided, we estimated the date of birth using other data available, so use these with extreme caution. They are followed by an "E". Within each name the list is sequenced on the year and month of birth so that we can keep the entries in approximate chronological order for comparison and analysis (see the Annie's Ishort name messed up the Ann's).

WHERE BORN, WHERE MARRIED & CITY/CNTY are all columns showing places. All are shown with the state first followed by the county or the city. Abbreviations and shortened spelling were used. The first two need no explanation, but the City/Cnty does as it is used to identify a number of places. These entries are always followed by a lower cased letter which is a code to indicate the event. They should be clear, but let us know if you need help. They generally are b=buried (born is in the other column) d=died, w=will, r=resided, c=census, etc.

SPOUSE: This needs little explanation, you can see that they are last name first. If there was more than one spouse the number of the marriage follows the spouse's name and they are arranged in order.

PARENTS: It doesn't say so, but it should be obvious that these are always Alfords. The father's name and maybe middle initial are shown first followed by the mother, and to the extent possible, her maiden name. In many cases we sacrificed her first name and used an initial in order for you to see her family name. A blank in this column strongly suggests that the person on the left is the dead-end of someone's Alford line, and they need your help.

PEDIGREE PUZZLES

With each data bank printout we will probably have some questions concerning specific entries—which will be written up under this heading. In this issue we have two questions for David Price.

ADELINE C. ALFORD obviously the same person. We will yield to your CA date of birth since we backed 20 years of the date of marriage which we got from "Hunting for Bears." Which last name for the spouse and which date of marriage do you think is most likely to be correct?

AMANDA ALFORD may be the same person. You sent the top entry and the bottom came from "Hunting for Bears." Are we safe in merging these into one record?

ALCUS ALFORD looks like the same fellow with two marriages. Although in two different states they are in adjoining counties/parishes. Can some of you southern Mississippi experts help on this one?

AUGUSTUS ALFORD is a question for Myra Hunt who gave us the second of these two entries. The first came from "Hunting for Bears." We hate to admit that our estimates could be almost fifty years apart (although we agree that one will easily be 25 years off and the best estimate here would be 1875). Myra, do you think these are the same fellow?

GIVE US ADDITIONS AND CORRECTIONS

BIBLE RECORDS

Ruby Heard has suggested that we ask you to submit copies of your old family Bible records so that they can be published. It is a very good idea and we are starting with a copy she sent. In the next issue we will use copies that were received from Novis Odom. We need your help from then on. If you have an old family Bible or have copies of the record pages from one, send it along for publication.

ALFORD FAMILY LINES

To the extent possible we will try to work with specific Alford family lines or groups. We will consider a complete or full line to be one which has it's beginning with an ancestor from the first part of the 1700's or from an immigrant who arrived later than that date. We will not necessarily start with the first known or suspected ancestor, but one on whom we have reasonably good information. We are not using Lodwick (1710 VA) as a family because of the large number of children he had, rather we will start lines with his sons. (See Jacob Alford on page 20). Those with Alford lineage that cannot be identified to an early 18th century ancestor or an immigrant will be classed as a "loose line" or an Alford group, see John Madison Alford on page 18. Those which come from a recent immigrant will be called a "short line" see the one below. We consider the Jacob and Thomas Alford lines shown on pages 12 and 20 in this issue to be full lines.

Who can add something to this short line below that come from Gerry Showalter?
