In Loving Memory

JENNIE B WEIS

Jennie B Weiss, 94, of Wauchula, died on Sunday, July 5, 2009, at her home.

Jennie B was born to Wilbur and Leha Spivey in Eatonton, GA, on Oct. 5, 1914. She was the youngest of nine children. The Spivey family moved to Hardee County in 1921.

She was a homemaker. Her Aunt Effie Spivey was one of the charter members of the Wauchula Methodist Church and Jennie B joined this church when she was 12 years old.

She married John Weis and moved to Bowling Green in 1934. They moved back to Wauchula in 1951. Her life centered around church activities where she was teaching Sunday School and was very involved in the United Methodist Women.

She was a charter member of the hospital auxiliary and a charter member of the Hardee Senior Citizens Club, where she served as president several times. Jennie B also worked as a volunteer at the nursing home.

She is survived by three sons, David Weis and wife Louise, Carl Weis and wife LaDonna, and Ken Weis and wife Janet, all of Wauchula; six grandchildren, Paul Portal of St. Petersburg, Dr. Kristina Weis of Tallahassee, Cheryl Weis of Everett, Wash., Duane Weis and wife Sabrina of Bradenton, Nicole Albritton and husband Chris of Cocoa, and Preston Weis and wife Leslie of Orlando; seven great-grandchildren; and one great-great-grandchild.

A memorial fund is set up through Faith Temple Church of God, 701 N. Seventh Ave., Wauchula, to assist the family with funeral expenses. For information, call 773-3800.
