

Sketch of Alford Family

The name Alford including its several variations (Alvord, Alfred, Ivard, Olford, Olford and Allford) is said to mean "The Old Ford Over a Stream That Runs Through The Town". The original home of the Alford is reported as in Devonshire and they derive their name from parishes in Lincolnshire and Somerset Counties. The surnames Alford, Alvord, Alvord and other deviations are used interchangeably in many records so that different spellings occur for members of same family. These deviations were often times due to poor penmanship, poor spelling, inability to read or write and in having to have someone else do writing for them. The original spelling was Alford. The earliest mention of the surname in records is that of the valiant knight Robert de Aldesford in 1184 in the "Annales Cestri enses, p. 33" John Alford of Somerset is mentioned in the time of Edward III is mentioned in "Kirby's Quest". Mention is also made of John de Hereford Co. in 1273. Thomas Alford and Benedicta Berisford were issued a marriage license in London in 1624. The Mere, Wiltshire Parish Register in England records the following marriages; (name of male is shown first) Alford and Wynsor in 1573; Alford & Craft in 1579; Alford & Gardener in 1580; Alford & Monok in 1581; and several others.

Benjamin Alford (Alvord, Benedictine Alford (Alvord) and
Nearly 3/4 of the Alford's in the U.S. are descended from Benedictus Alford and Jane Newton. Alexander Alvord was the brother of Benedictus Alford. Practically the entire Alvord family is descended from Alexander Alvord and Mary Vore. Descendants of Benedictus Alford and Alexander Alvord in America are about equal in number. Despite the deviation in spelling of the surname, most of the members of this family in the United States have an identical ancestry.

Above taken from Historical and Biographical Sketch of the Alford, Alvord, Alfred Families

According to The Dictionary of American Names by Elsdon C. Smith the name Alford is an English name and means one who came from Alford, (the Alderford of Eagth--Ealdyth--Ealdgyth, villages in Lincolnshire and Somerset Counties.

Coat - Of-Arms

There are several Coat-Of-Arms for the Alford Family according to the Historical and Biographical Sketch of the Alford Family. Following taken from above mentioned booklet;

Alford; (Of Holt Co. Denbigh, Fawley Co. Berks and of Meux Co. York, Sussex and Hertfordshire--- descended from THOMAS ALFORD of Holt mentioned in the last visitation of York--1615)--- Gules 6 pears or, 3, 2, and 1, a chief of the second.

Crest: A boar's head argent in his mouth 3 feathers of a pheasant's tail proper.

Meaning of terms used in Coat-Of-Arms; Gules-- denoted the color red, and stands for fortitude. Or - refers to the tincture gold or yellow.

Chief- signifies the upper field of the shield. Argent-- means silver or white and signifies peace or security. Proper- denotes the natural color of animal, tree or vegetable/

Marilla (Alford) Blau, who read and studied the "Book of Heraldry" says that our Alford line is ^{probably} the only American line who can trace this Coat-Of-Arms and Crest.

John Alford of Fredrick Co. Va. married Mary-----. His will which was probated Ja. I, 1748 in Fredrick Co. Va. along with the inventory of his estate lists following children; Thomas; William; Mary; John; Priscilla and Acquilla.

Info rec'd from Elizabeth Price. Hasn't been established that the above John and Mary Alford are the parents of our Thomas Alford.

Thomas Alford was born in 1725 and is of English descent. (1) Place of birth not known. Parents may be the above mentioned John and Mary Alford. He died--Nov. 14, 1805 (2) in what was then Montgomery Co. but now Wythe Co. Va. He married Elizabeth--- (2) date of marriage not known. Elizabeth was probably born in late 1720's or early 1730's. She died in Montgomery Co. which is now Wythe Co. Va. after 1805.

Montgomery land survey shows that Thomas and Elizabeth Alford owned 225 acres on west side of New River in 1783.

Deed book 4 of Wythe Co. (page 388) shows that in Nov. 1805 Thomas and Elizabeth sold to Joseph Russell and John Feely--- 225 acres by survey on New River, corner to Andrew Crockett. (This would appear to be the 225 acres they surveyed in 1783). (3)

Thomas Alford is listed in the Va. Magazine and Biography Vol. 47- page 32 that he was one of the men in Capt. Edwards Co. as being between ages 16-56 on Mar. 24, 1781. (3)

Thomas Alford resided in Goochland Co. Va. in 1757. (2)

The will of Thomas Alford as listed in Will Book I-338 says; I am sick. Written Nov. 14, 1805. Probated Dec. 1805. Mentions Moses to maintain his mother, Elizabeth; and to pay the brothers and sisters or their representatives of those who may be deceased $1 each. Makes void all other wills. Wife Elizabeth and Moses to be executors. (3)
